Who is eligible?

Youth ages 16–24 who are living in unstable and non-traditional living arrangements are eligible for services. If you or someone you know might need these services, call 815.433.3953.

If you are interested in more information on the Street Outreach Program, or would like a presentation about the program, please contact the Youth Service Bureau.

Street Outreach Program

Services meet the immediate needs of street youth while seeking long-term solutions. Staff combine education and intervention to teach daily life skills. These tools empower youth to take greater control of their circumstances in a positive manner.

Program Highlights:

- Referral/Linkage
- Transportation
- Survival Aid
- Reduction/Prevention of sexual exploitation
- Employment seeking
- Access to health care and nutrition
- Linkage to short and long term housing
- Independent living skills
- Positive adult connections

Transitional Living Program

The Transitional Living Program (TLP) is for youth ready to take the initiative to better his or her own life. YSB case managers work closely with TLP clients to provide guidance and to help them accomplish the goals they set for themselves.

TLP residents are required to work, attend school or perform community service for a minimum of 30 hours per week. Youth are encouraged to become responsible and learn the skills necessary to become independent adults.

Program Highlights:

- Safe and stable long term living accommodations
- Life skills building:
 - Menu planning and preparation
 - Parenting skills
 - Budgeting
- Linkage to Educational Opportunities:
 - GED Preparation
 - Post-Secondary Education
 - Vocational Education
- Assistance in job preparation and attainment
- Mental Health Services
